

Travel schedule for November 10th and 11th, 2023

date	time	schedule
November 10 th (Fri)	15:00 ~ 16:20	Yonsei University - Gonjiam Resort
	16:20 ~ 16:45	Gonjiam Resort-Hwadam Forest
	16:45 ~ 18:00	Hwadam Botanic Garden
	18:00 ~ 18:15	Hwadam Forest-Gonjiam Bongcheon Noodles
	18:15 ~ 19:20	dinner
	19:20 ~ 19:35	Gonjiam Bongcheon Noodles-Gonjiam Resort
	19:35 ~ 20:00	Gonjiam Resort Check in
	20:00 ~ 21:30	Global Welfare Department and KOICA 12 th Batch joint meeting
	21:30~	Washing up and getting ready for bed
November 11 th (Sat)	08:00 ~ 09:00	Breakfast
	09:00 ~ 10:00	Gonjiam Resort Ecological Stream
	10:00 ~ 10:20	Gonjiam Resort-Icheon Ceramic Art Village
	10:20 ~ 11:40	Icheon Ceramic Art Village
	11:40 ~ 12:00	Icheon Ceramic Art Village-Pottery Village Ssalbap Street
	12:00 ~ 13:00	lunch
	13:00 ~ 13:20	Pottery Village Ssalbap Street-Gyeonggi Provincial Porcelain Museum
	13:20 ~ 14:30	Gyeonggi Provincial Porcelain MuseumIcheon Ceramic Art Village
	14:30 ~ 15:35	Gyeonggi Ceramic Museum-Yonsei University

Icheon Ceramic Art Village

Icheon Ceramic Art Village is a renowned cultural and artistic destination in South Korea, known for its rich history in ceramic and pottery craftsmanship. Located in Icheon, Gyeonggi Province, this village is a hub for ceramic art and pottery lovers. Overall, Icheon Ceramic Art Village is a fantastic place to immerse yourself in the world of ceramic art, explore the cultural heritage of South Korea, and bring home some beautiful pottery souvenirs.

Pottery Village Ssalbap Street

Ssalbap Street in Icheon, South Korea, is a charming and culturally significant destination that revolves around the rich tradition of Korean pottery and offers traditional rice meals within a setting of traditional hanoks (Korean-style houses).

The name "Ssalbap Street" itself signifies its focus on traditional rice meals. "Ssalbap" means "rice meal" in Korean. Visitors can expect to savor a variety of traditional Korean dishes centered around rice. These dishes may include classics like bibimbap, japgokbap (multigrain rice), and other rice-based meals, often accompanied by an array of side dishes such as kimchi.

Hwadam Forest

Hwadam Forest, also known as Hwadam Botanical Garden, is a beautiful natural and cultural attraction located in Gwangju, Gyeonggi Province, South Korea. This forested area and botanical garden offer a serene and educational experience for visitors. Hwadam Forest is home to a large botanical garden with a diverse collection of plants and flowers. Visitors can explore various themed gardens, including a cactus garden, a tropical plant greenhouse, and a wetland garden. The botanical garden is not only a place for leisurely strolls but also serves as an educational resource for learning about different plant species. There are well-maintained walking trails that meander through the forested area. These trails provide opportunities for hiking and leisurely walks, allowing visitors to immerse themselves in the natural environment.

The Gyeonggi Provincial Porcelain Museum

The Gyeonggi Provincial Porcelain Museum, also known as Gyeonggi Ceramic Museum, is a cultural institution located in Gwangju, Gyeonggi Province, South Korea. The museum is dedicated to the preservation, exhibition, and promotion of Korean ceramics, particularly porcelain, and it plays a significant role in showcasing the rich history and artistic heritage of Korean pottery. The museum's collections primarily focus on Korean ceramics, which have a long and illustrious history dating back to the Three Kingdoms period (57 BC - 668 AD). Korean porcelain, known for its exquisite craftsmanship and unique styles, is highly regarded in the world of ceramics.

Gonjiam Resort

Gonjiam Resort is a luxurious and popular recreational facility located in Gwangju, Gyeonggi Province, South Korea.

Gonjiam Bongcheon Noodles

1. Deulkkae sujebi "Sujebi" is a traditional Korean dish made by tearing hand-pulled wheat dough into small pieces and cooking it in a broth made from ingredients like anchovies, clams. It's then cooked for an extended period, and vegetables like pumpkin and potatoes are added. It's often served with kimchi on the side. "Deulkkae sujebi" is sujebi that includes perilla seed powder.	2. Mool Makguksu It is a traditional Korean noodle dish made with buckwheat noodles served in a cold dongchimi kimchi soup.	3. Bibim Makguksu Bibim Makguksu is a popular variation of makguksu in Korean cuisine. While traditional makguksu is served with a cold dongchimi kimchi soup, bibim makguksu is a spicy and tangy version of the dish. "Bibim" in Korean means "mixed," and in this context, it refers to the way the ingredients are combined.
Sharing Menu

4. 수육 (Suyuk) is a popular Korean dish that can be described as boiled or steamed pork.	5. 메밀전(Memiljeon) is a traditional Korean dish, often described as a buckwheat pancake or fritter. It is made using buckwheat flour, creating a soft and slightly crispy texture.

6. 메밀전병 Deep-fried buckwheat pancakes are pancakes or fritters made by mixing buckwheat flour and various ingredients, and then frying them to achieve a crispy and fried texture, enhancing their nutty and savory flavor.	7. 메밀만두 (buckwheat dumplings)

